COUNT I: NEGLIGENCE AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

Plaintiffs, by and through counsel, for Count I of their Complaint for Damages for Personal Injuries, Negligence against all Defendants, state and allege as follows:

12. Plaintiffs restate paragraphs 1 through 11 as though fully set forth herein.

13. Defendants were negligent in the following respects, to wit:

- a. By failing to design and manufacture the 1911 pistol so that it is safe to handle without exposing the handler to a risk of injury;
- b. By selling the 1911 pistol when Defendants knew or should have known that it posed a risk of injury or death to the handler;
- c. By failing to incorporate alternative safety designs that have been used by other manufactures for decades.
- d. By failing to warn the handlers of the 1911 pistol that it posed a risk of injury or death;
- e. By failing to provide adequate instructions, manuals and warnings of the risk of injury or death;
- f. By designing and manufacturing a 1911 pistol without adequate protection to prevent accidental discharge;
- g. By designing and manufacturing a 1911 pistol that is not safe;
- h. By failing to warn that the 1911 pistol was defective;
- i. By failing to warn that the 1911 pistol was improperly manufactured;
- j. Other aspects of negligence as discovery may reveal.
